

(COOL) FUN AT HOME : DAY 20

THE BUNNY HOP

EXPLORE OUTSIDE

LET'S GO TO THE HOP: Bunnies hop, Frogs hop, crickets hop...what other animals and creatures in nature hop? Head outside and see if can spot any!

GO ON A (WINDOW) EGG HUNT: Have your neighborhood create a window egg hunt! Let your kids decorate large paper eggs and put them in your window. Encourage your neighborhood friends to do the same. Go egg spotting!

LEARN

EGG SCRABBLE SCRAMBLE: Dig out your game of scrabble and fill those plastic eggs with letters. Have your child make words out of the letters found in the eggs. "Or So She Says" has a great Easter-themed word list you can use. For younger friends, just put one letter in each egg have them identify the sound for that letter!

CREATIVITY CHALLENGE

FUNNY BUNNIES: Today is all about the bunnies and we have 2 crafts today that turn ordinary TP rolls (we know you have them) into cute adorable bunny friends. Your child can make a Toilet Paper Roll Bunny (these will make cute Easter placecards) or make a Bunny Stamp! We think the Bunny Stamp activity will make a "hoppy" Easter surprise for Grandma or friends your kiddos have been missing.

MOVE

THE BUNNY HOP: "Hey Alexa...play The Bunny Hop by Ray Anthony and His Orchestra!" Ok all you cool cats, it's time to step back in time and do the dance that was sweeping the nation back in the 50's...THE BUNNY HOP! Here's a tutorial from Adventures in Dance.

STORY TIME

Who doesn't love a great story being read to them. Storyline Online has well known actors reading some of our favorites stories. Check out Rose Byrne reading Beatrix Potter's classic. 'The Tale of Peter Rabbit.' Perfect for a spring day!
